Sneakily

Bun - ny hop-ping all a - round. Bun - ny hop-ping all a - round.
 Bun - ny snif-fing all a - round. Bun - ny snif-fing all a - round.
 Bun - ny sneak-ing in the gar - den. Bun - ny sneak-ing in the gar - den.
 Bun - ny chomp-ing onsome food. Bun - ny chomp-ing onsome food.
 Some - one's com-ing ver - y close. "Oh, no!" Some - one's com-ing ver - y close. "Oh, no!"

Bun - ny hop - ping all a - round. Then he hears a sound and stops.
 Bun - ny snif - fing all a - round. Then he hears a sound and stops.
 Bun - ny sneak - ing in the gar - den. Then he hears a sound and stops.
 Bun - ny chomp - ing on some food. Then he hears a sound and stops.
 Some - one's com - ing ve - ry close. "Oh, no!" This time he does-n't stop. He runs, and runs, and runs, and runs, and runs, and runs, and runs.

Teacher track (1:57):

Introduction - four measures

The following order of movements works best with the teacher track to match the bunny sounds.

Without vocals throughout.

1. Hopping
2. Hopping
3. Sneaking
4. Sniffing
5. Sneaking
6. Chomping
7. Final verse with two additional "runs and runs..." to add excitement.
