ding, Ring - a ding, ding, ding - a ding, dong.

ding, dong, ding, dong, ding, dong.

**This song was inspired on a trip to Germany, where church bells can always be heard ringing. The ostinato parts were written to recreate the ringing of the church bells.*
